NEWS AND COMMENT.

AN egg famine is prevailing in Wilmington.

OLD JOHN ROBINSON'S circus is heading this way.

PUBLIC sentiment is turning against Justice FIELD.

THE great London strike is still "on," 150,000 strong.

THE row in the Republican camp in Virginia has thus early begun.

THE Agricultural and Mechanical College at Raleigh opens on the 10th.

FRANK HATTON, much to our surprise, has "let up" on the Civil Service humbug.

A "WHOPPING" Coal Trust has just materialized, and right in the lap of Protection.

GOV. FOWLE denies the soft impeachment that he is aspiring to succeed Senator VANCE.

THE Atlanta Exposition offers a prize of $3,000 for the best military company in the United States.

THE Democrats of Ohio have named JAS. E. CAMPBELL, of Butler county, as their candidate for Governor.

THERE were 36 applicants for Prof. GRAVES' shoes at the State University. What is the country coming to?

JUST think of it,—438,614 foreign immigrants landing on the American shores from July 31st, '88 to July 31st, '89.

GRISSOM'S latest manifesto is in the shape of a 52 page pamphlet, in which he bitterly rebukes his enemies and those who differ with him. A bad sign.

THE Ohio Democratic platform has the ring of genuine metal, and promises "to continue the battle for tariff reform until the cries of the people are triumphant."

COL. POLK in the Progressive reports 2,030 Alliances in Georgia, 1,555 in Alabama; and 1,048 in North Carolina, as all pledged against the use of jute bagging.

KILRAIN has been bailed in $2,000 to appear at the September term of the Superior Court at Purvis, Miss; and now another fight between him and SULLIVAN is on the tapis.

THE business failures during the past seven days number for the United States 189 and for Canada 22, or a total of 211 as compared with a total of 206 last week and 211 the week previous to last.

THE Harnett Courier is one year old and bids fair to enjoy many more birth days. It is a sprightly paper, and deserves well at the hands of the people of Dunn, in behalf of whose success it has been a steadfast friend.

THE OBSERVER tenders its hearty congratulations to Brother Sinclair of the Sanford Express upon the third anniversary of that bold and outspoken paper. May the trenchant pen of its present editor continue at the helm.

DR. FULLER, first assistant physician at the N. C. Insane Asylum, at Raleigh, is out in a card denying that he ever congratulated Dr. GRISSOM, whereupon Dr. GRISSOM in return says Dr. FULLER is suffering from mental aberration.

W. J. BEST, the celebrated railroad man, who once stirred up a sensation in North Carolina, and had an extra session of the Legislature called, has bobbed up again. This time he is about to run a railroad between Washington City and Point Lookout, shortening the time between Washington and Norfolk six hours.

AN address has been issued from Washington to all the Congressmen who are supposed to favor a repeal of the internal revenue system, praying them to pledge themselves to no candidate for speaker who will not promise in advance to give them a fair showing, and also asking that they refuse to enter any caucus which proposes to take adverse action on this question.

ACCORDING to the Raleigh correspondent of the Messenger, Dr. GRISSOM don't take his meals at the steward's table at the asylum. He took them there for a few days, under authority given by the following action of the board of directors: "It is moved and carried that the board extend to Dr. GRISSOM the invitation to take his meals at the steward's table with his immediate family." This was in compliance with Dr. GRISSOM'S request. The Dr. is again keeping his own table. His family, save a son, is at Smithfield. The statement that he would make the latter town his home is said to be an error. It is yet doubtful whether he will live in Raleigh, though he has partially engaged a house. A friend of his says that the Doctor's purpose is to take up the practice of medicine, and that his desire is to build up a practice. He asserted that the Doctor had no political aspirations, whatever. But, then, all that glitters is not gold.

Odd Fellows' Lodge.

News and Observer.]

It is desired that this column should be filled every Sunday morning with items of general or local interest to members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Communications from prominent Odd Fellows in all sections of the State are expected. These should be sent to the Grand Master or the Grand Secretary at Raleigh, and marked "For Odd Fellows' column in N. & O." By this means is established a medium of communication—by which all may keep themselves posted as to the condition and progress of the order throughout the jurisdiction.

Phœnix Lodge No. 119, of Burlington N. C., is one of the most vigorous young lodges in the State. It was instituted a little more than a year ago, and since that time has more than doubled its membership and has now several candidates on hand. The Grand Master and the Grand Secretary visited this lodge on the 13th and installed its new officers. That sterling citizen and zealous Odd Fellow, W. G. Adams, Esq., is their new Noble Grand—and it is a little singular that at this time he occupies the positions of Dictator in a lodge of Knights of Honor and Worshipful Master in a Masonic lodge.

Past Grand J. H. Holt, Jr., of the well-known firm of J. H. & W. E. Holt, has been appointed District Deputy Grand Master for Alamance county.

Grand Secretary Woodell visited Carthage last week, and did some good work, resulting in the resuscitation of Carthage Lodge.

Upon the petition of 22 residents of Zionville, Wautauga county, the Grand Master has issued a dispensation for the organization of a lodge at that point, and has appointed Dr. J. W. Connelly, of Trade, Tenn., a special deputy for the purpose of iustituting the lodge. It will be known as Zionville Lodge No. 121.

District Deputy Grand Master B. C. Gorham, of Fayetteville, N. C., was married recently in the city of Newbern. His Lodge, old Cross-Creek, presented Mrs. Gorhamwith a beautiful bridal bouquet. A long and happy life to our Brother and his good lady.

Grand Representative Cordon spent a few days last week at Wrightsville, resting and recuperating. Mr. Cordon, as pastor of Edenton Street M. E. Church of this city, has a large work on his hands, and, we learn, is doing it most successfully. He is very popular in the pulpit, and draws large congregations at every service. As a pastor he has few equals. Everybody knows him and everybody loves him. His genial nature and social disposition win for him many friends, not only in his own congregation, but among all the denominations.

The Odd Fellows throughout the State deeply sympathize with Bro. E. A. Yates—the beloved pastor of Trinity Church, Durham—in the bereavement he has recently sustained in the loss of his daughter, Miss Pearl.

D. D. G. M., S. B. Bartlett, is actively at work. Already he has sent in to the Grand Officers one petition for the organization of a Lodge in Currituck county, and he is cultivating other new grounds besides. The fire is burning bright in the East.

And here is a good word from "Golden Link," Durham, N. C.:

We are glad to say that Golden Link Lodge of Durham has taken no backward steps recently. Our motto is "Upward and onward." The principles inscribed on our altars are "Friendship, Love and Truth," and it is the constant and unvarying inculcation of these principles for which Golden Link Lodge is striving to be strictly practical.

In the beginning of this new term we feel that we have again installed into the official chairs of our lodge men who have the good of the order at heart, and who will not only strive to build up the strength of the order, but will inculcate by precept and example its teachings.

We have a membership of which we now feel proud. a membership which we believe fully realize that the order is built upon eternal principles, and who believe there shall be no drones in a busy hive. We have had work in the degrees each meeting (since we were installed by our D. G. M., J. A. Stout, who for grace and elegance is an adept at the business) that has kept us busy until a late hour, and now we say to Seaton Gales, Manteo, or Orion, and other Lodges in the State, look ye to your laurels, for at the next meeting of the G. L. Golden Link will be there with flying colors.

Brother Odd Fellows, these lines are written with a hope that your pure minds may be stirred up to a greater diligence, and to the end that greater good may be accomplished through this medium in the Old North State.

Brethren, let us go on, unfurling the white banner of our Order, giving it proudly to the breeze till its triumphant folds intertwine and become blended with the stars and stripes of the freeman's hope and home, and every nook and corner in North Carolina shall catch the words, "Onward, go onward." GOLDEN LINK.

Charles C. Pearce, Grand Guardian of the Soverign Grand Lodge, died in Florida on the 14th ult. He had served in the Soverign Grand Lodge for several years past as a Grand Representative from the jurisdiction of Florida and was appointed Guardian at the session held at Los Angeles in September last. He was a man of great force of character, firm and faithful in all his dealings and a devoted and enthusiastic Odd Fellow.

The Evidence of Things Seen.

Boston Budget.]

A Boston child, being taken for the first time to the beach, became very much interested in the crowds of bathers disporting in the water. Finally, as numbers of the bathers began to return to the bath houses, the child's sympathies became immediately aroused, and turning to her mother she said, sorrowfully: They must be very poor folk, mamma; they've got so little clothes on."

North Carolina Extension of the N. & W. R. R.

Pulaski News.]

Wednesday morning the incorporators of the New River Plateau Railway Company and representatives of the Norfolk and Western system met at Maple Shade Inn, Pulaski, and transacted business of the greatest moment to our town. For many months surveyors have been at work running the several practicable routes to connect the Cripple Creek Extension of the N. & W. with the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad under the charter granted to the New River Plateau Railway Company. At this meeting, carrying out the proposed plan, the New River Plateau was consolidated with the N. & W. and Maj. M. W. Coe was made Chief Engineer, with full sanction of the work already done.

Of the four proposed routes the one was accepted which continues the Cripple Creek from Ivanhoe up New River 21 miles to the mouth of Meadow Creek (near Old Town in Grayson county); thence following Meadow Creek to near its head, in a south-easterly direction; then through Low Gap in the Blue Ridge, descending to a point on the North Carolina line 4 miles from Mt. Airy, where it will be met by the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad. This is the route, with the reservation to make any slight detours found necessary, and the surveyors were ordered to commence yesterday the final location of the road.

Geo. T. Mills will build the unfinished portion of the road, which will be three miles in Wythe county, twenty-five miles in Grayson and thirty-three miles in Carroll. The charter provides that the road may be bonded, but it shall not be made to share in the existing bonded indebtedness of the road with which it consolidates.

This route makes the distance from Pulaski to Mt. Airy ninety-six miles, and will make Pulaski the terminus of the North Carolina Extension of the N. & W. (which the Cripple Creek is to be called), giving us a great through route to Wilmington, N. C., one of the very finest harbors on the South Atlantic coast.

Relation of Diseases of Domestic Animals to Man.

The Monthly Bulletin R. I. Board of Health.]

The question of the inter-communicability of diseases, to and fro, between mankind and domestic animals, is, at the present time, receiving vastly more attention than at any time previous in the history of pathological (disease-study) investigation.

In addition to the scores of eminent scientists of the highest attainments in the study of diseases, expert in the manipulation of the microscope, and of the most advanced acquirements in biological (life-study) investigations, working in private laboratories with the most thoughtful care and precision in the endeavor to avoid fallacious results, there are numerous universities and higher institutions of learning in America and in Europe, having more or less extensive laboratories fitted with the most recent and most useful appliances for pathological and biological work, and in charge of earnest and able and considerate workers.

The relations of animal diseases to the public health in their various bearings are having and will have ample investigation in these different laboratories, and facts of the utmost importance will ultimately be brought to light. It is now known that glanders, kine-pox, trichinosis and tuberculosis are transmissible from the brute animals to man. Many facts are known which point to the possibility, if not the probability, that scarlet fever may be communicated from milch-cows to mankind, by immediate contact and through the medium of milk. During the prevalence of diphtheria, it has been observed in some instances that domestic fowls and cats are affected with a disease of the throat, attended with some fever and great debility and with large fatality. There are a number of diseases of domestic animals which have many symptoms in common with the diseases of mankind, and, if not identical, they at least approximate very nearly thereto.

Upon this line of research, a most extensive field of pathological investigation is open, and the results of extended inquiry and observation are looked forward to with the most anxious interest.

Rectified Pine Tar.

The following letter recommends itself to the readers of the OBSERVER without any thing at our hands. It reads:

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26, 1889.

Z. W. Whitehead, Esq.:

Please to hand this to some subscriber who makes "Rectified Pine Tar."

There is a bright future dawning for this as a roofing pitch—a substitute for coal tar pitch—than which it is far superior, as it outlasts and undersells it.

Coal tar pitch, owing to the recent introduction of electric lights and consequent lessening of manufacture of and use of gas and other causes, is growing scarcer every day, and is now controlled by an arrogant and dictatorial pool.

Roofers throughout the country will readily adopt Rectified Pine Tar in its place, if justly assured that the supply will equal the demand. Any section of the country where pine far is plenty can build up a good trade by taking the initiative in manufacturing and placing it in market.

I want samples and prices, as I intend to go into the roofing business here, provided I can get ample material of the kind I speak of in your section. Yours, etc.,

A. MCALLISTER,

The Curse of the 19th Century.

Oxford Friend.]

Why was the miserable and suicidal system of credit ever established? Why should the honest man be made to pay the debts of the dishonest? Yet he does. Every man in business calculates on so much loss on account of bad debts, and the wares that the honest poor man buys are marked up to a figure that will cover that loss. Is it right? Is it just?

"The Manly Art of Self Defence."

Giving "blow for blow" is often more thought of than that other "art of self defence," which consists in defending one's own system from the assaults of disease and neglect. When dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, "liver complaint," jaundice, and the like lay hold of the system, the best defence is the immediate use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets; tiny, sugar-coated granules, made from concentrated vegetable extracts; one a dose.

A Cloud-Burst Across the Line.

Bennettsville Democrat.]

Not in the memory of the oldest inhabitant has there been such a fall of rain in this section as fell here on Sunday night last. It was a regular gully-washer, land-slider—and the damage done to crops, roads and bridges cannot be estimated. In consequence of a washout near Dr. Jordan's, the mail train was detained here two hours. Fortunately a large force employed in extending the track to the Oil Mill happened to be available, or the train would have been delayed longer. The bridge on Cottingham Creek, on the road to Hebron, was swept away, and the bridge on Crooked Creek for a time was impassable. The woods in the Flats were one vast sheet of water.

Later—We learn that the rainfall of Sunday night was pretty general over the country, and that, with few exceptions, nearly every mill in the county lost its dam. Among these Mr. J. H. David, Messrs. Evans, J. B. Breedon, E. W. Goodwin, Robert Peel, James McDaniel, Northam's, McNairs', Leaches', McRae's, R. C. Easterling's, C. S. McColl's and Mrs. B. D. McLeod's. At C. S. McColl's the loss was particularly heavy, as he lacked two days of finishing his dam, which, with the work of twenty days, was swept away. At Mrs. McLeod's the destruction was more complete—the bridge, mill-house and a portion of the dam was entirely washed away.

The Grading Finished.

Wilmington Messenger.]

Mr. W. P. Fortune and his son, Mr. W. F. Fortune, spent Sunday in the city. The former had the contract for grading so much of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad extension as lies between Wilmington and Black river, and he completed his contract on Saturday. The entire grading between Wilmington and Fayetteville has now been finished, and as rapidly as circumstances will allow work is progressing on the trestling and bridges along the road. Mr. Fortune has the contract for constructing the bridge trestling at Black river and other points in the vicinity. Owing to the rain tracklaying has been progressing slowly, and has not been pushed much beyond a point opposite Point Caswell.

Question of the Removal of Trinity College.

Raleigh Call.]

It appears that there will be some strong even bitter opposition before the M. E. State Conference with reference to the removal of Trinity College to Raleigh. A private letter received here states that members of the opposition have some of the strongest legal talent in the State and plenty of it to enjoin the removal if Conference does not kill the project. One family in Davidson county claims that the college property is now held and controlled by the trustees conditionally, and if the college be removed, the property will revert to them (the family). It is not known positively as to whether this position could be sustained by law, but the claim is confidently made.

Unseemly Levity.

VENOM IN TONGUE AND PEN.

We append extracts from a leading editorial in a recent issue of the New York Mail and Express—a periodical which claims a position of weight, dignity and respectability in the newspaper field, and which is the metropolitan organ of the Prohibition party in the State of New York:

As poor old Jeff Davis is permitted to live and spout treason, so Terry, the embodiment of the spirit of the "Southern chivalry" that tried to take California out of the Union, was permitted to follow up his murder of Broderick by the life of a bully and desperado; to become the hired champion of Althea Hill, and to finally marry her for her ill-gotten gains; and to consummate the most disgraceful of all offenses for an ex-Judge, that of acting like the murderous brawler and ruffian that he was, in the very temple of justice.

* * * *

Treason, indeed, has been "made odious" by the entire public career of this ruffianly Southron, "Dave" Terry, who was a fit type of the "unsubjugated," and a fit follower of Jeff Davis, who still survives, and prevents us from forgetting what immeasurable evils and calamities he invoked on the country to which he was so false.

The Mail and Express is conducted with ability, evidencing a thorough acquaintance with the history of its country and the record of current events, and the editor was wilfully distorting facts when he penned the above paragraphs. We are no apologists of Terry: he was a dangerous man, and in his attack upon Justice Field he took his life in his hand, and paid the just penalty for the deed.

But in the duel with Broderick facts of record demonstrate plainly that the latter, not Terry, was the aggressor; indeed, so convinced was Broderick himself of this that he offered to tender to Terry the apology which he conceived to be his due. But the truth is, Broderick's backers—the rampant Abolitionists of the Pacific coast—anticipated a different result from that duel, and the expected slayer became the slain. Hinc illæ lachrymæ.

So far as ex-President Davis is concerned, it is perhaps fortunate that the editor of the Mail and Express has not the power to "kill and make alive." Grant uttered the fervent aspiration: "Let us have peace," and his soldiers throughout the broad domain of the Union have reechoed the sentiment; but the truculent, malevolent journals of the North are yet distilling gall and wormwood, and doing to death countless enemies through the medium of pen and paper.

We are at a loss to know what the Mail and Express is "going to do about it." The Almighty, in His Infinite wisdom, has seen fit to cut off in their sins other "rebels" and "traitors," the coadjutors of ex-President Davis;—Lee, Jackson, Albert Sydney Johnston, Stuart, etc.; but frost after frost is piled upon his aged head, the furrows multiply upon his honored brow, the shades of evening gather about him—and still God takes him not unto Himself, for an hundred years would be all too short a period for the Southern people to show their love and veneration for Jefferson Davis.

If the editor of the Mail and Express will deign to cast his eyes upon so insignificant a spot as Fayetteville—situate right in the heart of the great "rebellion"—he will, about the 21st of November, behold a spectacle which shall make him tear his hair in impotent spite and malice: ex-President Davis surrounded by tens of thousands, his eyes looking upon their upturned faces, and his ears catching their shouts of greeting and welcome.

GREAT CHICAGO.

Great is Chicago among the cities of the earth. The indomitable perseverance of its people in recently accomplishing the annexation of all the neighboring towns and suburbs, and their consolidation into one immense Chicago of 174 square miles, for the purpose of securing the honor of the second place in the census of 1890, is almost without parallel.

The breezy, bragging, bouyant, busy city of the West is now making a determined bid for the World's Fair of 1892, and is certainly setting forth some very valid claims and strong inducements for the location. One telling point is that in reaching it foreign visitors would penetrate the heart of the country, passing through the fairest portions of the Union, and visiting some of the most splendid cities of the continent. It claims also the best tempered climate in the world, through its "refrigerator," Lake Michigan; railway facilities embraced in 30 per cent. of the lines of the United States; hotel capacity for 150,000 guests, besides that offered by 5,000 boarding-houses, etc., etc.

THE LYNCHBURG AND DURHAM R. R.

With the most cheerful alacrity we take the extended hand of the Durham Globe, and "shake" in hearty fellowship of its advocacy of the southern extension of the Lynchburg & Durham R. R. to Fayetteville.

Our well-informed contemporary appreciates the many cogent reasons for making this city the objective point of the southern extension: Fayetteville and Durham are on a direct line north and south—offering a saving in cost of construction and of time in travel and transportation, a matter of consideration in the railway engineering of the day; the cost of grading and track-laying would be much less than by a line farther west, tapping the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway at Sanford or Gulf; it would open to market a good agricultural section which has hitherto had no railway facilities whatever, and the line would run within easy access of an abundance of excellent timber for cross-ties, trestles and bridges, as well as of stone for bridge-piers, culverts, etc.; it would make connection with the Atlantic Coast Line, the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway, west, east and south, or by Cape Fear River to Wilmington; by the almost certain extension of the Southern Pacific R. R. from Bennettsville to Camden Junction, a direct through route to the extreme South would be opened, while ample facilities would be furnished for the transportation of the phosphates of South Carolina to the lands of the Tobacco Belt, and Virginia and the northern part of this State would receive inexhaustible supplies of timber and lumber from Robeson and the counties of the lower and upper Cape Fear sections.

Thus, while the Wilson & Fayetteville R. R., by Florence, and the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley, by its southern and eastern extensions, give to the Lynchburg & Durham R. R. a quick route South and direct communicatton with Wilmington, the latter road will act as another feeder to the great trunk line of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway, which, ultimately penetrating the great West, and bisecting North Carolina from north-west to south-east, connects the mountainous region with the sea-board, and gives tribute of its immense resources to one of the most important ports on the Atlantic coast.

The people of Fayetteville will cordially welcome the coming of the Lynchburg & Durham R. R., and we doubt not, too, that such arrangements can be made with the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley R. R. Company, with regard to use of track, etc., as will greatly facilitate its approaches and entrance into town.

TAKE THE CASE, GENTLEMEN.

In the selection of a man qualified in every particular to fill Dr. Grissom's shoes as Superintendent of the North Carolina Insane Asylum at Raleigh, devolves upon the newly appointed Board of Directors a grave and responsible duty—a duty they individually and collectively owe to themselves and their constituents alike, to discharge to the best of their knowledge and ability and for the best interests of the Institution over which they have but recently been called to preside. Upon their action, therefore, on the 11th inst., largely depends the future success and usefulness of the Asylum.

Fayetteville will present the names of two gentlemen, Doctors W. C. McDuffie and T. D. Haigh, either of whom would do honor to the Institution, the State and the section from which they hail, and reflect credit upon the wisdom and sagacity of the Board of Directors. All things being equal, then, we hope the Cape Fear section will at least receive that consideration to which her efficient and patriotic sons by persistent application to the study and practice of their chosen profession and adherence to the principles of "Pure Democracy and White Supremacy," claim she is entitled. Believing that the Board is fully cognizant of the responsibility they have assumed, we await their action with perfect confidence in their wisdom.

ISSUES OF THE DAY.

THE National Economist has an editor who sleeps with one eye open, and has a head brim full of those things you call brains. Hear him:

"Money is power, and the concentration of money is the concentration of power. The taking of the money from the hands of the people and the concentration of it in the hands of a favored class by action of law is but the transfer of power from the hands of the people into the hands of an oligarchy; it is a process of centralization, the final result of which is imperialism."

We confess this to be one of the most logical reasons ever advanced against this Pennsylvania protection you hear so much about.

IN OBEDIENCE to a call issued sometime ago, about 600 negroes gathered at Charlotte last Saturday for the purpose of organizing a "Black Man's Party." Speeches were the order of the day, and the Harrison administration was roundly denounced; also his appointments in the South, and especially in North Carolina. The speakers charged that Harrison's policy was to give all the good places to white men and bring the colored brother in to play second-fiddle if anything. Finally the Convention resolved to either change Harrison's appointments in this State or withdraw forever their support from the party. After much debating an independent colored Republican party was organized and a chairman and an executive committee selected, with John Wilson as chairman of the committee. The Convention continued in session for about three hours and wound up with a general onslaught on Federal appointments. Archibald Brady, the newly appointed Post Master at Charlotte, and J. J. Sims, Superintendent of the Public Buildings, and John B. Eaves, revenue collecter for Western North Carolina, were all burned in effigy amid deafening shouts of approval. The fun, however, has just begun, as the Convention will meet again in September, when colored men from every Southern State will be invited to attend and join the movement with a view to demanding just recognition at the hands of the Administration.

Brother Harrell informs us that that hand kissing story was a joke, from the sportive pen of Prof. Winston.—Wilmington Star.

We have but one opinion regarding this matter, and that is this: any man who will knowingly write such a miserable and uncalled-for lie should be kicked out of the State University. We consider him a poor example of truth for our young men to model after.

Make ready for THE OBSERVER'S Centennial issue.

Views of a Prominent Business Man.

Dr. H. W. Lilly, Treasurer of the Beaver Creek & Bluff Mills, and an influential citizen of Fayetteville, in a recent communication to the Manufacturers' Record, gives expression to the following views, which, in our opinion, are sound and incontrovertible, while they are expressed with a force and lucidity which should carry conviction to the intelligence of every unprejudiced reader:

So far from a high tariff operating for the good of the cotton manufacturing interest, as is claimed by the advocates of protection, my idea is that as long as this country imposes a high tax on imports, foreign trade will be to a great extent diverted, and the cotton interest will therefore suffer in proportion. There must be a fair interchange of commodities to encourage the trade of other countries. Until that condition of things exists there can be but little improvement; the demand will not equal the supply, and the cotton interest will not regain its healthy tone. Why has the export of cotton goods decreased during the past year? Not because there has been any special change in the tariff, but owing to the issues presented in the last presidential campaign, and the verdict declared by our country not to encourage foreign commercial intercourse; that is, to retain an unnecessarily high tariff. There is no doubt as to the necessity and wisdom of diversifying manufacturing in the South.

Sunday School Work.

The Executive Committee of the North Carolina State Sunday School Association has divided the State into 12 Sunday School Districts as follows:

FIRST DISTRICT.

Currituck, Camden, Pasquotank, Chowan, Perquimans, Gates, Hertford, Bertie, Martin, Washington, Tyrrell and Dare.

SECOND DISTRICT.

Hyde, Beaufort, Pamlico, Carteret, Craven, Jones and Pitt.

THIRD DISTRICT.

Onslow, Pender, New Hanover, Brunswick, Columbus and Bladen.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

Northampton, Halifax, Edgecombe, Nash, Franklin, Warren and Vance.

FIFTH DISTRICT.

Wilson, Wayne, Lenoir, Greene, Duplin, Sampson, Johnston and Wake.

SIXTH DISTRICT.

Granville, Durham, Person, Caswell, Alamance, Orange and Chatham.

SEVENTH DISTRICT.

Harnett, Moore, Montgomery, Cumberland, Robeson, Richmond, Anson and Stanly.

EIGHTH DISTRICT.

Rockingham, Guilford, Randolph, Stokes, Forsyth, Davidson, Surry, Yadkin and Davie.

NINTH DISTRICT.

Iredell, Cabarrus, Rowan, Union, Mecklenburg, Gaston, Lincoln, Cleveland and Catawba.

TENTH DISTRICT.

Alleghany, Watauga, Alexander, Ashe, Wilkes, Burke and Caldwell.

ELEVENTH DISTRICT.

Madison, Buncombe, Henderson, Mitchell, Yancey, McDowell, Rutherford and Polk.

TWELFTH DISTRICT.

Cherokee, Clay, Graham, Swain, Macon, Jackson, Haywood and Transylvania.

A President is to be appointed for each District, who will proceed to organize each county as rapidly as possible, and call a District Convention at some convenient time and place before the meeting of the State Convention at Wilmington April 9, 10 and 11.

The President for this District has been selected, and will be announced as soon as we receive his acceptance of the work.

G. P. MCNEILL, Pres't
Cumberland County S. S. Convention.

Centennial German Club.

Reported for the Observer.]

One of the brightest and prettiest scenes it has been our pleasure to behold for many a day was to have been witnessed last Thursday night in Brandt's Hall, when the handsome young men and the fair and charming young ladies of our dear old city had gathered for the organization of the "Fayetteville Centennial German Club," the object of which is to have in hand the management of a series of dances during the season, not the least of which is to be the grand ball during the approaching centennial, complimentary to Miss Winnie Davis, the daughter of the Southern Confederacy.

After the organization of the club the election of officers took place, resulting as follows: Mr. C. L. Campbell, Leader; Mr. J. D. Williams, Jr. (2), President; Mr. E. Kyle, Treasurer; Mr. Jacob Schlossberg, Secretary. Promptly at 10 o'clock, as the lovely strains of music floated out upon the clear night air, the following couples tripped lightly out upon the floor to join in what every young girl thinks the sweetest thing in life—the exquisite joy of whirling in the mazy waltz in the arms of her "best feller:"

Mr. Andrew Broadfoot and Miss Alice McDuffie; Mr. I. P. Overbaugh and Miss Ruth Smith; Mr. J. D. Williams, Jr. (2), and Miss Carrie Pemberton; Mr. William Glover and Miss Bertie McDuffie; Mr. Jas. Kyle and Miss Mittie Matthews; Mr. Wm. Kyle and Miss Nellie Pemberton; Mr. Herbert Huske and Miss Rebecca Haigh, Mr. Geo. Underwood and Miss Laura Pemberton; Mr. T. F. Moore and Miss Louine Huske; Mr. A. B. Williams, Jr., and Miss Sue Haigh; Mr. Lee Smith and Miss Kate Underwood; Mr. Henry Pemberton and Miss Eliza Williams; Mr. Archie McDuffie and Miss Mary P. Underwood; Mr. John H. Robinson, Jr., and Miss Maggie Mallett. Chaperones:—Capt. and Mrs. W. E. Kyle, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Underwood, Mrs. John A. Pemberton, Mrs. H. R. Horne, Mrs. E. T. B. Glenn, of Macon, Ga.

We have seldom witnessed a more recherehe affair. The lovely costumes, the charming brilliancy and the innate sweetness of Fayetteville's fairest, blended with the "old-fashioned" deportment of times long gone brought back to our minds the days of "Auld Lang Syne." And thus another bright spot has been recorded upon the pages of the past, ever to be remembered sweetly by us.

THREE STAGS.

McNatt's to the Front.

Correspondent Lumberton Robesonian.]

McNatt's has a new gin, a new blacksmith shop, a large eight day calendar clock, brand new R. R. office—biggest thing we ever saw unless it be the Industrial issue of the Fayetteville OBSERVER (?)—and is daily expecting a new post marking stamp and letter balance for the P. O. department. Bully for McNatt's!

Roslin Items.

Reported for the Observer.]

Capt. Archibald McLean, a gentleman well known throughout this section and universally esteemed by his fellow-men, died August 20th, aged about 68 years. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. Stedman Black.

The heaviest rain-fall of any one day this season fell last Monday.

Capt. John Smith, of this place, has done a good trucking business this year, and tells this scribe that his sales for several weeks past have averaged him $10 per week. Mr. S. has been awarded the premium for the past two years on fine corn, but your correspondent thinks he can outgeneral him on that score this year.

The health of our people, with some few exceptions, is good.

Rev. Kenneth McDonald is on a visit to his many relatives and friends in this neighborhood.

Rev. J. G. Fisher preached last Saturday night and Sunday morning at Rockfish to large congregations, and Sunday evening, at Hope Mills No. 2, to a large congregation. At the close of the sermon ten persons asked for prayer in their behalf, and one came forward for baptism. We are under many obligations to Mr. Cotton and the Hope Mills Company for the use of their large hall for preaching.

ROSLIN COR.

Little River Academy Dots.

Reported for the Observer.]

The Cape Fear Shingle Company have again been prevented from putting their cable across Cape Fear River.

The bridge across Little River at McBryde's Mills has been so damaged by the recent freshets as to make it impassable for anything but foot passengers.

The South Carolina man is far ahead of us with his cotton. We have picked none so far and will not for some time, as there is little or none open.

While on some timber on Little River, last night, Mr. A. M. McBryde had the misfortune to have one of his feet badly mashed between two sticks of timber, but we are glad to say not seriously, and is able to walk by the aid of crutches.

Mrs. J. D. Williams, who has been quite sick, is, we are glad to note, very much improved.

Senator Williams and family have returned from Eureka Springs, very much improved in health.

Mr. W. D. Adams has gone to New York to purchase his stock of fall goods.

Dr. J. M. Boyette has just returned from a "business" trip to Lilesville, N. C., his former home.

Miss Maggie McBryde has taken her departure for the far West. She goes to Springfield, Mo., where she will resume her duties as music teacher in one of the largest schools of that city.

Dr. J. A Hodges, of Fayetteville, made us a flying visit this week. He was up to see his father, who has been sick, but is a great deal better.

Mr. E. O. McGrenamyer, one of Fayetteville's most enterprising business men, is in our midst, looking after timber that he is carrying down the river for his large mill in Fayetteville.

Mrs. S. W. Tillinghast and family, of Fayetteville, are on a visit to Mrs. J. D. Williams.

Mr. D. D. McBryde, Jr., one of our most prominent young men, left this week for Plainview, N. C., where he goes to take charge of a large school at that place. May success attend his efforts.

Glad to see Mrs. M. L. Williams in our midst again. She has been confined to her room, at the home of her brother, Mr. Walter Smith, since last winter, by injuries received by alighting from a moving train at Godwin. She is very much better, and we hope will soon be entirely well.

COR.

The Growth and Curing of Grasses.

For the Observer.]

Brother Farmers:

Knowing as I do the fact that you have not been stinted in the way of gratuitous advice on the great and important subject of farming, and that, too, by men, nine times in ten, who were themselves ignorant of God's best way for man to make his living by the "sweat of his face," I shrink from coming before you as an adviser, but simply wish to state some stubborn facts, and make some few common-sense suggestions for your consideration. I fear that many of you are much in the same condition that the whale was in after having traversed the great deep, with disobedient Jonah in his stomach for three days:—sick; yes, so sick that you can take in no more, but your desire is, as was the whale's, to disgorge, and then to be left free to pursue your life calling, according to your own sense of duty.

This would certainly be a free and manly course, one which I approve of, and one which I suggest to you to pursue untrammeled by any thing which I may say. But the grass, it is in our fields. What are we to do with it? We tried to make our crops without growing grass, but we failed. Now that we have the grass, shall we let it run to seed, dry up and rot on our lands or shall we, like sensible men, pull it, cut it, and save it, to feed to our stock as far as necessity requires, and then sell all the surplus at the highest price we can, to aid us in our farm operations in 1890?

I think the sensible course for us to pursue is to save every pound of hay we can, and during the winter, if we find we have more than our stock can consume, to bale it in small bales of 50 to 100 lbs., holding it in readiness for market at our convenience. The difficulty in the way of baling with many of our famers is that they have no hay presses at their command. To all such I beg to suggest that you form a hay trust of two, three, four or five, and make a press of sufficient size and power to put up 50 to 100 lbs. bales, which can be done at no outlay of money, but all done by two or more farmers by their own hands, with their own material. With good sweet hay, thus baled, you have an article which you can find ready sale for next spring and summer. And you will find that the merchants will readily buy your hay thus baled, when they would not touch it if taken to market by the load loose—unbaled. Do not forget this.

Hundreds of tons may be saved between this and frost, which will certainly displace as much Yankee hay for next year.

It is but sensible and right for us to avail ourselves of the opportunity of turning to good account the present crop of grass.

Now, a few words as to the growing of grass for making hay. Every farmer possessing land of suitable quality for grass growing should, I think, grow as many acres in grass as he can, without suffering at some other point.

It is safe to say that a ton of hay can be grown and cured ready for the press at a cost not to exceed five dollars. If this be so, can any farmer running a one horse farm do better than to grow four to ten tons of hay? I think not.

Feeding stock well in your stables in winter pays well on the farm next summer. Do not forget this. No farmer should buy forage to feed his farm stock on. There is some excuse for the turpentine and mill men to buy Yankee hay, but none that I can see for a man living and running a farm, and yet the past summer I have seen regular, genuine farmers—Alliance men at that—hauling Yankee hay from Fayetteville to their farms to keep their stock from suffering. Such a state of affairs should not exist on any farm, not even on one cultivated by the assistance of a mortgaged scrub mule, which the possessor agreed to pay $100 for, when he was not, it may be, worth $50.

Next week I propose showing, beyond a doubt, that every farm can be made self-sustaining so far as the forage question goes, if the stock be not out of proportion to the farm, and at the same time increase the fertility of our poor soil.

W. DREWRY SMITH.

Sept. 3, 1889.

Items from Lumber Bridge.

Reported for the Observer.]

The weather is now clear, pleasant and invigorating, and farmers are putting forth redoubled efforts in pulling fodder. The luscious grape in which this section abounds is now beginning to ripen, and we all expect to luxuriate in them to our supreme delight.

Dr. McLeod says that the health of our neighborhood is "distressingly" good, and that he has to make long journeys to find patients. Considerable improvement has been made in our village by the grading of newly laid-off streets.

Rev. J. S. McLeod has just returned from a visit to Moore, and Mr. "Billy" Smith, a handsome young bachelor, is back from a sojourn of several months in Richmond county. Mrs. Adams, of Clio, S. C., and her handsome daughter, Miss Minnie, Miss Kate Monroe, of Wilmington, and Mrs. McFadyen, of Cumberland, have been visiting our village—the last for the purpose of entering her handsome and intelligent daughter in school here; Messrs. Currie, of Melrose, Pate, of Brunt, and Bond, of your city, have also been here to place their children at school.

This school opened on the 19th ult. under most promising auspices, and few colleges can show a handsomer, more intelligent and orderly set of young ladies than the female department of this institution, while the male department cannot be easily excelled. Mrs. Lamont has her boarding-house fitted up in fine style, and will soon have it filled with boarders. Prof. J. B. Carlyle has left for Wake Forest. The protracted meeting, which has been so very successfully conducted at Providence Church for two weeks or more, recently closed. Revs. Messrs. Scott, Moore, Pitman and Cobb labored zealously and well, their labors being crowned with 30 or more who professed religion and 15 or more who joined the church. A glorious revival recently closed at Shandon, where several united themselves with the L. B. Church. Old Robeson seems to be the seat of war vs. the evil one, and we rejoice at it. The Y. M. C. A's. Sunday evening prayer meetings are largely attended, much interest is manifested, and a revival will doubtless soon begin.

The Sunday School Convention takes place on the 24th and 25th insts. We are pleased to see that the OBSERVER will appear soon as a semi-weekly—success to it.

SCRIBBLER.

MR. J. R. GRINSTEAD, Sonora, Ky., says: My children have sometimes had boils and other signs of blood impurities, with loss of appetite, etc., at which times I have found Swift's Specific a most successful remedy, in no instance failing to effect a speedy and permanent cure.

"SWIFT'S SPECIFIC is a great blessing to humanity," says Mr. P. E. Gordon, of 725 Broad street, Nashville, Tenn., "for it cured me of rheumatism of a very bad type, with which I had been troubled for three or four years. S. S. S. cured me after I had exhausted everything else."

MR. RUSSELL MYRICK, of the firm of Myrick & Henderson, Fort Smith, Ark., says he wishes to add his testimony to the thousands which have already been given as to Swift's Specific. He says he derived the most signal benefit from its use to cure painful boils and sores resulting from impure blood.

WHEN taken for a few days, potash mixtures impair the digestion, take away the appetite, and dry up the gastric juices which should assist in digesting and assimilating the food. Swift's Specific has just the opposite effect; it improves digestion, brings appetite, and builds up the general health.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

Press of Matter.

The pressure on our columns of new advertisements and other reading matter has unavoidably delayed the hour of publication of this issue.

"Bound to Shine."

THE OBSERVER is "bound to shine." We step to the front this week with just 25 solid columns of advertisements. Circulation, like murder, "will out," and work will tell. Look out, next week!

Iron Arriving.

The iron for the railroad bridge across the Cape Fear river at this place has arrived, and the iron work in the first span will be finished in a few days.

Going Ahead.

Mr. J. R. Vann tells us he has sold already 14 of his vacant lots in the eastern suburbs of the city. Mr. V. is a live man, and can be counted on to work the new suburban town for all its worth.

President of A. & M. College.

The Board of Directors of the State Agricultural and Mechanical College, in session at Raleigh last Friday, elected as President of that institution Prof. A. Q. Holliday, now President of the Agricultural College at DeLand, Fla.

Centennial Committees.

By order of the chairman, Capt. A. B. Williams, all the committees in charge of the approaching Centennial Celebration will meet in the Town Hall on Monday afternoon next, at 4 o'clock, for the transaction of business of importance.

For the Young Folks.

Quite a large number of children assembled at the school-room of Mrs. Kate Utley yesterday afternoon, on the invitation of Mrs. Grinnan, who entertained them with an exhibition of Japanese curiosities, giving explanations of their manufacture, uses, etc.

Your Attention, Please.

We especially invite the attention of our readers this week to the attractive page advertisement of the Fayetteville Racket Store, and to those of K. Lewald, W. F. Campbell, C. O. D. Clothing Store, B. E. Sedberry, W. Prior & Son, A. S. Huske, Agt., Mrs. A. J. McDonald, McClure, Grenamyer & Co., J. D. McNeill & Co. and the Carolina Engraving and Stereotyping Co.

Very Acceptable.

Mr. Jas. M. Pearce, of Bordeaux, sends us a basket of his magnificent grapes, with his compliments, for which we make our grateful acknowledgements. Mr. Pearce is shipping the scuppernong, picked with the stems and put up in handsome packages. Of course they are eagerly sought after, and command good prices.

New Departure in the Fire Service.

At the last meeting of the city board of Mayor and Commissioners a resolution was passed, dividing the fire department into reliefs, as we might say, for each quarter of the year, and providing a bonus of $2 for promptness and efficiency at fires. This excellent move will doubtless be attended with good results.

Hymeneal.

Capt. Jolly, one of the popular and efficient conductors of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway, was recently married at Mt. Airy. We have been unable to gather any other information than the bare fact of the marriage, but we wish our friend as much joy as if we had been the "best man" at the ceremony, and knew all about it.

Commissioners' Court.

The Board of County Commissioners met on Monday last—present: A. B. Williams, W. J. Buie, M. A. Gillis, K. J. Rhodes, N. R. Blue.

The resignation of John W. Smith as constable of Cross Creek township having been accepted, Mr. E. M. Waddill was elected to fill out his unexpired term.

M. A. Gillis was authorized to repair the bridge over Rockfish; and, after hearing petitions for and against, the public road in Flea Hill township, from Strickland's, on the Underwood road, to David Williams's, on the old dirt road, was continued. The committee appointed to audit the accounts of the late Sheriff McQueen and of W. A. McArthur, late tax-collector, made their report and were discharged. Messrs. A. A. McKethan, Jr., C. L. Taylor and A. B. Williams were appointed a committee to audit the accounts of H. C. Fisher and Jno. B. Troy, and report at the monthly meeting in October. It was further ordered that the tax books for the year 1889 be placed in the hands of Sheriff Fisher, with the usual warrant for collection.

After auditing bills to the amount of about $800.00 for sundry expenses, the board adjourned.

ALL ABOARD FOR ABERDEEN.

Fayetteville and Albemarle Railroad.

Pursuant to adjournment on the 21st of July, a meeting of the incorporators and stockholders of the Fayetteville & Albemarle R. R. was held in the Town Hall at 12 M. on yesterday.

The report of Capt. D. G. McDuffie, civil Engineer, was submitted and ordered to be filed, and will be published in the next issue of the OBSERVER as matter of general interest to our readers.

On motion of John Blue, books of subscription were opened, and several thousand dollars of stock were speedily taken.

After an adjournment for dinner, the meeting was called to order at 3 P. M., when, on motion of Maj. A. A. McKethan, a permanent organization was effected by the election of the following Directors: Jno. Blue, J. W. McNeill, J. M. Hagy, A. A. McKethan, Jr., T. H. Sutton, A. B. Williams, N. S. Blue. The meeting then adjourned, subject to the call of the President.

At a subsequent meeting of the Board of Directors, the following officers were elected;

President—John Blue.
Vice-President—N. W. Ray.
Secretary—Z. W. Whitehead.
Treasurer—A. A. McKethan, Jr.

On motion, it was ordered that subscription books be opened at the Secretary's office, and that the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer and a committee to canvass the town for subscriptions to the road.

Messrs. N. S. & John Blue were appointed a committee to canvass the country between Fayetteville and Albemarle—subscription to be taken in money, labor and other securities.

New Depot.

The work of erecting the new passenger depot for the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway, on Military Green, has about commenced. In addition to the facilities and conveniences of the road, and will be hailed by the traveling public with pleasure.

The plan shows that it will be the handsomest depot on the whole line of road—with every convenience for the comfort and security of travelers, and, withal, so pretty as to form a veritable picture in the "Scenery of the Route." Mr. Klutz is the architect of the building (of course, as the company always gets the services of the best men), and we may rely on him to fill the bill to perfection.

What the Young Men's Christian Association is Doing.

The first and most essential need that was suggested to the General Secretary, on taking charge of his work, was the two signs that now point the stranger to the rooms.

The next thing was to have a correct roll of MEMBERSHIP.

To this end a committee was appointed to see each reported member and ascertain definitely how many on roll intended to stick to the association, as it had been reported some time ago that quite a number had expressed their determination to withdraw their names. When the committee has made its final report the roll will be advertised in the OBSERVER, so that any whose names do not appear on roll may report either to the General Secretary, or the Recording Secretary, A. J. Cook, and have correction made at once.

MEETINGS.

By unanimous vote of the Association, the Friday night Gospel meeting has been changed to a Bible Conversational Class. This class will be led by the General Secretary, but in an informal way, allowing any one to ask questions or exchange views. The first meeting of this kind will be held Friday night, Sept. 13, and all men, whether members or not, are asked to read the first ten chapters of Genesis omitting the fifth chapter on genealogies, and be sure to attend this meeting. The Bible Training Class for workers has also been organized, and will meet Thursday notice, at 4 P. M. [illegible] continue one hour. The regular Gospel Meeting is held every Sabbath evening at 2½ o'clock, to which all men are most cordially invited. Hereafter this meeting will be restricted to a fifteen minutes talk from the leader, and five minutes from volunteers.

All meetings will begin and close promptly on time.

GYMNASIUM.

The Gymnasium building will be commenced at once, and it is hoped that in one month everything will be ready for class drill and other exercises.

It will be well for all members who expect to participate in Gymnasium exercises to procure in the meantime shoes without heels, as no member will be allowed to do mat work wearing shoes with heels. Each member will also provide himself with a belt, as other supporters will be a hindrance to good exercise. The whole Gymnasium suit, indeed, would be best, but not essential.

INTEREST.

A deeper interest is already being shown in all departments of the work, and all the Association asks is the hearty support of the town, remembering the Young Men's Christian Association is always the Home of the Young Men.

Sound Reasoning.

A very sensible article from "M.," a valued friend and correspondent, pointing to the best method of utilizing the unproductive lands of Cumberland county, will appear in next issue.

Mr. F. R. Rose, of the well-known house of Rose & Leak, has returned from the North, bringing abundant stores of beautiful goods.

Missses Maggie and Fannie O'Hanlon, of Haymount, returned last Thursday from a very pleasant sojourn of six weeks at Mt. Vernon Springs.

Messrs. John and N. S. Blue, prominent citizens of Aberdeen, and largely interested in the Fayetteville & Albemarle R. R., were in town this week.

Col. W. C. Houston, Jr., and Mr. Learing, of Philadelphia, spent the night here last Tuesday, on their way to Hope Mills, in which they have interests.

Mr. J. Milton Hagy, of Philadelphia, one of the original incorporators of the Fayetteville & Albemarle Railroad, is in the city, stopping at the LaFayette.

Mr. A. H. Slocomb last Saturday returned from his European tour—as full of pleasure and varied incident as it was possible to crowd into the space of time.

Mr. Geo. Rosenthal returned to the city from a pleasant visit to his family in New York, during which time he purchased a fine line of gents' furnishing goods, etc.

Mr. Jas. M. Dockery, of the firm of Dockery, Wilson & Co., Memphis, Tenn., has been spending a few days with Mr. W. Drewry Smith's family on Haymount.

Mr. Jas. R. Williams has returned to the city from his trip to the Green Brier White Sulphur Springs, much pleased with his visit, recuperated and otherwise improved.

Mr. Jennings, we are glad to learn, has so far recovered as to be able to return to Fayetteville; Mr. Jennings has been very ill of typhoid fever at his old home at Bennettsville, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Grinnan, who have been residing for many years in Japan—the former as missionary and the latter as teacher—are visiting Fayetteville, of which Mrs. Grinnan is a native, where she had [illegible] of loving friends. Miss Arlena Steele.

H. L. Cook, Esq., one of the rising and popular young attorneys of the Cape Fear section, left Friday last on the Steamer "Murchison" for Carolina Beach, where he will spend several days around the "briny-lashed shores of Old Ocean's Deep." The OBSERVER wishes him a pleasant sojourn.

Mr. J. A. McArthur leaves Saturday for Kenansville, whither he goes to assume the position of Assistant Principal of the Kenansville Academy. Mr. McArthur is a graduate of Davidson College, a young man of exemplary habits, and we heartily commend him to the good people of his adopted home.

Capt. J. W. Fry, General Superintendent of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway, gave us the pleasure of a call yesterday. He has been camping about in the neighborhood of washouts recently, and is sun-burned, but well and vigorous. He states that $20,000 will repair all damages to track, and put it in better condition than ever before.

Hope Mills Items.

Rev. J. G. Fisher is conducting a series of meetings at this point.

J. W. Monroe, agent at this station, sold tickets to 490 passengers during the month of August.

On Sunday morning last a young couple presented themselves before a magistrate at this place and requested to be joined in the holy bonds of matrimony; before the ceremony was concluded, however, and other fellow appeared on the scene and objected, showing a marriage license of a previous date, and stating that he thought the oldest had taken the land. On hearing this, magistrate told the couple that he could not accommodate them, he sailed out to get a horse to follow them; but alas for him, the magistrate changed his mind and made them man and wife.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

The World Moves!

Get Up and Ride!!

When the Big Guns in the Dry Goods trade, who are supposed to buy their goods on long time, insist on selling everything to everybody for strict cash, we think it is time for us heathen, who have to pay cash and cash only for our goods before we can ever see them, to follow in their illustrious footsteps.

It is a well-known fact that all dealers in Grain are compelled by the commercial law of the times to pay for their supplies before they can get them, however much such dealers may be worth, or however they may be.

We have decided therefore to adopt the same rule in selling that we have to abide by in buying. In our case, this should always have been the rule. The unbusiness-like methods of others being our only excuse for wrong-doing, we trust that all of our patrons will "catch on" to the "new departure," and show their appreciation of our endeavors in the past to please them, by continuing to give us their patronage.

Recollect that we sell you

Meal and Feed

AT THE

of the unground material.

We also hold that to endeavor to do a

Hand to Hand Cash Transaction with every purchase is not only impracticable but also unbusiness-like, and we wish it distinctly understood that accounts with parties of a known place of business, that are always promptly paid on presentation without any foolishness, is in our opinion cash.

Respectfully,

J. D. McNEILL & CO.,

Our Selling Prices,

as you will find out by calling at

THE RACKET STORE.

How do we manage to get such goods, at such prices, do you ask? Well, we will tell you: Our New York partner, Mr. Charles Broadway Rouss, has taken advantage of the several recent large failures in Philadelphia, New York and Boston (amounting to over $400,000) and bought all classes of goods at less than it cost to manufacture them, and is sending us the CREAM OF HIS BARGAINS, which we offer to you, and which it will pay you to examine.

And now one word in parting:

WE MEAN BUSINESS!

We have a very large stock HERE, and more coming every week; and we propose to sell them, as these prices will prove. Come to see us. You will be well treated.

Track-Laying Progresses.

Track-laying on the Wilmington extension of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. between this city and Wilmington is progressing rapidly, and has already reached Point Caswell in Pender county.

The Cash System.

One by one the merchants of Fayetteville and every other town are adopting the cash system—a system that must inevitably prevail throughout the country. Mr. F. W. Thornton is the latest convert to this system, and we hope he will be followed by others.

Stations on the C. F. & Y. V. Between Fayetteville and Wilmington.

The new map just issued by the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway Company gives the stations on the line between Fayetteville and Wilmington as follows: Autry's, Owensville, Parkersburg, Ingold, Tomahawk, Kerr's, Moore's Creek and Riverside.

Fayetteville L. I. A. Relic of 1793.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger has been presented with a flint and steel musket, of English make. On a brass plate on the butt is the inscription "Fayette Ville Light Infantry Association 1793." It is but reasonable to conjecture that this is one of the first guns manufactured in London specially for the company.

LaFayette Arch.

The OBSERVER rises to suggest the erection of a "LaFayette Arch" over Hay street as an attraction for the November Centennial. New York had her "Washington's Arch" and why not Fayetteville have her LaFayette Arch, for whom the town was named. This would constitute a nice feature for the ladies to take charge of and push to a successful completion. What say you all?

An Interesting Discourse.

Last Sunday afternoon Mrs. Grinnan, recently returned from Japan, delivered a very entertaining and instructive discourse in the Presbyterian church, as to the religious progress, the customs, language, etc. of the Japanese. Mrs. Grinnan has the happy faculty in speaking which has hitherto rendered her newspaper letters so acceptable—that of graphic description and clear delineation of the salient points of interest of her subject.

Excursion Rates Continued.

The OBSERVER is glad to hear the Cape Fear River steamers spoken so highly of. The Messenger of the 30th says:

"The cheap rate of travel, $4 for the round trip, by any of the Cape Fear River steamers to Fayetteville, will continue until the 1st of October. These boats make close connection with trains leaving on the C. F. & Y. V. Railway for Mount Airy and other points in the mountains, and the trip by this route is as cheap as any, considering that meals and berths on the boats are included."

Indeed, a more delightful trip could be hardly imagined than up or down the placid waters of the old Cape Fear on one of the other of these well-equipped steamers.

Railroad Work.

Few people abroad have a just idea of the extent of the operations in construction carried on at the machine-shops of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway. For years past the company has been constantly adding to the building space and force of employes, while with new and improved machinery the quality of work done has proportionately advanced in value.

Capt. I. W. Clark, Master Machinist of the shops, now has orders for making as rapidly as possible 160 additional box and flat cars, etc., and, over and above this, new rolling stock is constantly being brought from the North.

The Mass Meeting.

A large and intelligent congregation assembled, pursuant to notice, in the Presbyterian Church on Monday evening last the occasion being a mass meeting in the interests of the Young Men's Christian Association. "The Relation Between the Physical and Spiritual Side of a Young Man's Life" was discussed by Mr. Harley, Rev. P. Barclay and Mr. Geo. P. McNeill; the first viewing the subject from a general secretary's stand-point, the second from that of a minister, and the third from that of a layman. The services, supplemented with good singing, proved very edifying, for there can be no more efficient adjunct to the work of the church and the promotion of true religion than the Young Men's Christian Association, an organization of wonderful vitalizing power and influence.

Changes on the River.

The Steamer Cape Fear is now moored to her wharf, to undergo repairs and renovation, and Capt. R. H. Tomlinson has been transferred to the steamer Murchison.

Cheap Excursion Rates.

From the 7th to the 9th insts., inclusive, and good until the 20th inst., the Atlantic Coast Line will give cheap excursion rates to Baltimore and return, the fare for the round trip from Fayetteville being $13.00.

Capt. H. L. Fry's Promotion.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad Company, held at Greensboro last Thursday, Capt. H. L. Fry was unanimously elected Chief Engineer of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R., to succeed the lamented Maj. Atkinson.

For Wilmington.

Mr. Kirkland Huske left Tuesday for Wilmington, whither he goes to accept a position with Messrs. Brown & Roddick of that city. Mr. H. is a young man of fine business qualifications, and has a host of warm friends in Fayetteville who wish him a pleasant and profitable career in his new home.

What, Not Worth One Line?

Our esteemed contemporary, the Wilmington Messenger, in its recent "Encampment Edition," utterly ignored the existence of the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, either as a military organization or as a part of the State Guard. Well, we suppose the company can manage to bear it.

Parkersburg.

We learn that Messrs. W. J. Parker & Sons have built and are still building a considerable town at Parkersburg on the Wilmington extension of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad. This new town is about thirty miles from Fayetteville, fifteen miles from Clinton and seventeen miles from Elizabethtown.

Religious Notes.

Rev. Mr. Grinnan, a minister of note in the missionary field of Japan, preached an impressive sermon in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday evening.

Rev. Jno. M. Rose filled the pulpit of Rev. T. P. Barclay last Sunday morning, many pronouncing his effort one of the most interesting religious discourses they had ever heard.

He Will Be Here.

Hon. W. J. Green has returned from an extended trip through the Southern States, in the course of which he paid a visit to the beloved and illustrious Southern citizen and statesman, ex-President Davis, at his beautiful home at Beauvoir, Miss. Mr. Davis expressed a very deep interest in the Centennial Celebration in November, and declared his intention, God willing, of certainly being present. What a heart-stirring welcome he will receive when he does appear in our midst!

Grand Centennial Ball.

Among the attractive features of the Centennial Celebration in November next, none will be hailed with more delight by the young and pleasure-loving than the grand ball, to be given under the auspices of the North Carolina State Guard. Capt. J. C. Huske, the chief manager, assures us that nothing will be omitted to render it one of the most enjoyable and recherche entertainments of the kind that has ever taken place in the State. The assistant managers will be chosen and announced in due time.

Our Thanks.

Mr. A. S. Huske, agt. for Bordeaux Vineyard, will accept our thanks for a basket of the finest and most delicious scuppernongs of the season. You cannot imagine such a treat unless you were in our shoes.

Mr. J. S. Breece has also placed us under obligations by baskets of the La Conte Dwarf and Standard the and Duchess Pears. Not only very luscious and delicious in flavor, they are beautiful and remarkably perfect in form and size. Very naturally Mr. Breece takes a prominent place at all fruit exhibitions, and received prominent mention at the late State fruit fair at Winston.

The Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway Book.

Mr. Jno. M. Rose has placed on our table a copy of the illustrated hand-book of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway. The volume embraces a history of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley system from its inception to its accomplishment; a review of the work brought to completion since the consolidation of the Mt. Airy R. R. with the Western R. R. in 1879; a description of the agricultural, manufacturing and mineral resources of the 19 counties and other tributary country on the line of road; a sketch of the principal cities and towns from the mountain region to the coast terminus; scenery of the route; recapitulation of the road's resources and possibilities; the transmontane extension, &c., &c.

The book is from the well-known publishing house of Messrs. Allen, Lane & Scott, 229, 231 & 233 South Fifth Street, Philadelphia, and its press-work and typographic execution are not to be surpassed; the illustrations, taken from photographs, are the work of Messrs. Crosscup & West, 907 Filbert Street, Philadelphia, while the beautiful and ornate cover is the product of the taste and skill of Messrs. Packard of the Century Lithographing Company, 33 and 35 North Tenth Street, Philadelphia.

The volume was edited, compiled and supervised in the successive steps of its publication by Mr. J. H. Myrover, associate editor of the OBSERVER, and the design has been to make the work in every respect faithful to the important objects which brought it forth. Like everything the C. F. & Y. V. puts its hands to, the publication is first-class in every respect, and reflects credit upon all the officials,

New Firm.

By reference to our advertising columns to-day, it will be seen that Mr. C. D. Sedberry, a graduate of Maryland College of Pharmacy, has purchased a one-half interest in the well-known drug house of B. E. Sedberry. Mr. Sedberry is a young man of steady habits, and we predict for the new firm the same measure of success hitherto enjoyed by the original and only original B. E. Sedberry.

DIED.

PATTERSON—At her home near Richmond, N. C., on the 28th of August, 1889, in the 65th year of her age, MRS. JULIA ANN PATTERSON, mother of Dr. G. B. Patterson, of Fayetteville, N. C. She had been a member of the Baptist Church about thirty years, and we believe her spirit has winged its flight home to those loved ones gone before and to her Saviour, whose name she so often uttered in her lingering illness. She leaves behind nine children and many friends to mourn their loss, for she was a good mother, a kind neighbor, a friend to the poor and needy, ever ready to comfort the afflicted, but now her life of usefulness is done and she has gone to receive her reward.

Gone to the haven of the blest,
Where trials are all o'er;
Earth only has one angel less,
And heaven has one more.

R. E. T.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the C. F. & Y. V. Railway Company held in Greensboro, August 18th, 1889, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz:

WHEREAS: after long and faithful service ROGER P. ATKINSON, Chief Engineer of this Company, has departed this life and we wish to place on record a testimonial of our respect for his memory, therefore be it resolved by the Board of Directors of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway Company:

1st. That by the death of Maj. Atkinson this Company has sustained a loss that we greatly deplore and that it will be difficult fully to repair.

2nd. That during his connection with the Company, Maj. Atkinson exhibited the highest order of skill in his profession and the truest devotion to the interests of the Company, being always diligent in the performance of duty, careful of details, watchful of expenditures, pleasant and courteous in his dealings with all with whom he came into professional or social contact, and by his conduct and conversation, at all times, proving himself to be a man of sterling integrity and above the slightest reproach.

3rd. That we hereby extend to the family of the deceased our sincere sympathy with them in their great bereavement, and the Secretary of the Board is hereby directed to send to them a copy of these resolutions, and that the same be published in the newspapers of Fayetteville, Greensboro and Wilmington.

4th. That as a further mark of respect the general offices of the Company be appropriately draped with the emblems of mourning for thirty days. From the Minutes.

JNO. M. ROSE, Sec'y.

Resolutions of Respect by Hay Street M. E. Sunday School.

WHEREAS: Our Heavenly Father, in the exercise of His sovereign will, love and mercy, did call from "work to rest" June 30, 1889, our brother, JOSHUA S. HALL; therefore be it resolved,

1st. That while our brother, who had just fully consecrated himself to his Master's work, was preparing himself for a full day in the vineyard of the Lord, we recognize the divine right of the Master to give rest at noontide.

2nd. That our heartfelt sympathies be extended to the young wife and his widowed mother—he was her only child—and we commend them to Him who hath said "I will judge the widow."

3rd. That these resolutions be recorded on the Minutes of our Sabbath School and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased; also to the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER and the Raleigh Christian Advocate with a request to publish.

J. P. THOMSON,
R. L. HOLLAND,
W. W. COLE,
Committee.

[The publication of the above resolution was delayed by reason of the unavoidable absence of the Secretary of the school from town.]

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THANKS!

On the eve of the Fall Season I would be direliet in my duty to my many patrons were I not to publicly tender thanks for their many favors and assure them of my hearty appreciation.

I THANK YOU, ONE AND ALL,

and promise to use renewed efforts to successfully cater to a patronage which is certainly a high compliment to my endeavors.

THIS SEASON

my display surpasses anything for variety, extent and bargains ever shown in the State. An examination is all we ask.

THE FACT

of my buying in so much larger quantities than any other dealer here (as is proven by the size of my store and stock) gives me a decided advantage in making prices less than can be obtained elsewhere.

OUR BUSINESS,

commencing September 1st, 1889, will be conducted under a strictly cash system. This plan we have gradually been drifting into for a number of years, and are ready for the change. Our books will be closed on date mentioned above. This rule applies of course to everybody.

OVER QUARTER OF CENTURY.

To my old friends and customers whose names have been on my books for over 25 years, and who have paid their bills promptly, I desire to tender my assurance of gratitude, and trust to retain their patronage under the new departure.

JUST RETURNED.

I have just returned from the Northern Markets, and present for your consideration the most complete and perfect lines in Dry Goods ever shown in this State.

PRICES WILL TELL

this season, and I propose making them, under my Cash System, so low for such good value as will surprise you.

THE CHURCH SPIDER.

Two spiders, so the story goes,
Upon a living bent,
Entered the meeting house one day,
And hopefully were heard to say:
"Here we shall have, at least, fair play,
With nothing to prevent."
Each chose his place and went to work;
The light webs grew apace.
One on the altar spun his thread,
But shortly came the sexton dread
And swept him off, and so, half dead,
He sought another place.
"I'll try the pulpit next," said he,
"There surely is a prize.
The desk appears so neat and clean,
I'm sure no spider there has been;
Besides, how often have I seen
The pastor brushing flies."
He tried the pulpit, but alas!
His hopes proved visionary;
With dusting brush the sexton came
And spoiled his geometric game,
Nor gave him time or space to claim
The right of sanctuary.
At length, half starved and weak and lean,
He sought his former neighbor,
Who now had grown so sleek and round
He weighed a fraction of a pound
And looked as if the art he'd found
Of living without labor.
"How is it, friend," he asked, "that I
Endure such thumps and knocks,
While you have grown so very gross?"
"'Tis plain," he answered, "not a loss
I've met since first I spun across
The contribution-box" —Exchange

Keep Sheep.

Don't ignore sheep any longer, brother farmer. A writer in an exchange gives reasons why you should keep sheep. If fencing is objectionable, he says that in order to make swine husbandry pay, you must have pasture land sufficiently fenced to restrain swine, and when this is done you have a fence that will more than restrain sheep. The fence usually employed for swine is two or three boards at the bottom and two or three wires at the top. This fence requires two posts to every panel, which renders it expensive. I have around my sheep pastures five barbed wire posts two rods apart, with two stays between the posts, and have yet to see the first lamb that has gotten through this fence. The fence is cheaply constructed, but in order to be efficient must be kept in repair.

Sheep have had the name of killing out grass lands by incessant and close grazing, which in many instances is too true. The sheep requires a certain amount of grass, and if the pasture is over-stocked, it will, by its industrious habits, get the amount needed if it has to go down to next year's growth. The steer will graze a pasture very closely if compelled to do so, but not so closely as the sheep.

The sheep acts as an enricher of the soil by distributing manure all over the land. It will graze all noxious weeds that spring up in the fields, and it yields three items of increase: a valuable lamb in April or May, eight or ten pounds of wool in June, and the old sheep and wethers to be disposed of at a good figure in the fall.

The last but by no means the least item is the mutton yielded for family use. The stereotyped bill of farm fare—hog and hominy—has to give place to beef, poultry and mutton, and of these three meats there is none so easily provided in warm weather as mutton. A few sheep can be kept for this purpose, and one can be killed occasionally and divided with a neighbor, who can also kill in turn. The time is not far distant when a few sheep will be kept on every farm, and they will be as necessary an adjunct as are hogs to-day. Try a few and be convinced.

Farm Life in China.

A farmer may be hired by the year for from $8 to $14, with food, clothing, head-shaving and tobacco, says Adele M. M. Fielde in the Popular Science Monthly for July. Those who work by the day receive from 8 to 10 cents, with a noon-day meal. At the planting and harvesting of rice wages are from 10 to 20 cents a day, with five meals; or 30 cents a day without food. Few land owners hire hands except for a few days during the planting and harvesting of rice. Those who have more land than they and their sons can till lease it to their neighbors.

Much land is held on leases given by ancient proprietors to clansmen whose descendants now till it, paying from $7 to $14 worth of rice annually for its use.

Food averages little more than $1 a month for each member of a farmer's family. One who buys, cooks and eats his meals alone spends from $1.50 to $2 a month upon the raw material and fuel. Two pounds of rice, costing 3½ cents, with relishes of salt fish, pickled cabbage, cheap vegetables and fruits, costing 1½ cents, is the ordinary allowance to each laborer for each day. Abernethy's advice to a luxurious patient, "Live on sixpence a day and earn it," is followed by nearly every Chinaman. One or two dependent relatives frequently share with him the sixpence.

The Dairy Business.

Wilmington Messenger.]

The dairy business in our country is immense. It is estimated that $2,500,000,000 are invested and that 15,000,000 cows are used, requiring 60,000 acres of land. The South has much neglected this industry. With its advantages it ought to be a great producer of butter and cheese. It is said, farther, that 750,000 men are engaged in the industry, and 1,000,000 horses are required. The horses and cattle require 30,000,000 tons of hay, 90,000,000 of corn meal, about as much oat meal, 275,000,000 bushels of oats, 2,000,000 bushels of bran, and 30,000,000 bushels of corn. It costs $450,000,000 a year to feed these animals and $180,000,000 to pay the hired help.

These figures are enormous, but it must be remembered that our country is vast, and our population now not far from 65,000,000.

Col. Green on Grape Culture.

The Montgomery Advertiser said of Col. Wharton J. Green's discussion of the Grape Industry before the International Farmers' Association:

"The discussion was opened by Hon. W. J. Green, of North Carolina, in a speech of twenty minutes. Mr. Green has had large experience in grape culture, and his treatment of the subject was both interesting and instructive. He said the grape industry in the old world, in France particularly, is rapidly decaying, and he thought it was possible and altogether practicable for American farmers to supply Europe with pure wine."

Hoopskirts Again

may come into style, but it is hoped not. The transformation which will bring back that style of crinoline ought to be indefinitely postponed. Transformations in the health of thousands of women throughout the country have taken place during the past few years. Pale, haggard, and dispirited, they have become bright-eyed and healthy. The secret? Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which cures all those chronic "weaknesses" and distressing ailments peculiar to women.

Next to waiting for a verdict the most soul-harrowing employment is keeping the baby asleep.

CHOWAN
Baptist Female Institute,
MURFREESBORO, N. C.

Attention is called to the following facts:

FIRST. Only experienced teachers who have had special preparation for their work are placed in charge of the different departments, consequently the high grade of scholarship in all the departments.

SECOND. The location was selected in preference to many others because of the reputation of Murfreesboro for health, and the beauty of the situation. A recent visitor pronounces it the most beautiful spot he has seen in North Carolina.

THIRD. The health record of the young ladies is very gratifying. For years the average of doctor's bills has been only twenty-five cents per capita. During the last session, there was no case of sickness so serious as to need the presence of a physician.

FOURTH. Before the opening of the fall term, ten new rooms will be added and the dormitories will be furnished and carpeted. Only two young ladies will occupy the same room.

FIFTH. If a class of ten can be secured, arrangements have been made to have young ladies instructed in telegraphy and type-writing at a moderate cost.

SIXTH. The charges are as moderate as they can be made for the advantages offered. For these charges please see catalogue.

SEVENTH. Murfreesboro is seven miles from Conway, a station on the Roanoke and Tar River Railroad, which is a branch of the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad. A line of hacks connect the two places. It is fourteen miles from Norfolk and Carolina Railroad with which it will be connected by steamers so soon as the road is completed to the Chowan River which will be about August 15th. This route will open up all Eastern Carolina, making the Institute most accessable to parties on all lines of road connecting with the Norfolk and Carolina Road.
